Little Free Libraries

are places where you can find a book and leave one for others. Spearheaded by the Friends Board of Directors, the HAPLD will adopt four little libraries in Huntley. Two have been built and installed, and two will be added in the future. The inaugural free library shown at right was built by Sun City Woodchucks Jim Jiran and Ken Szymura.

Hamilton Farms donated the paint and post and installed the structure along Woodstock Street. The second little library was crafted to resemble the Huntley Library by Boy Scout Jarrod Khoo - Troop 927. It was installed at Deicke Park's Discovery Zone.
