$30 per person

Tickets available at the Information Desk through May 4

Boulder Ridge Country Club, Lake in the Hill, IL

Scrambled eggs, breakfast potatoes, sausage, fresh fruit garnish, muffins, coffee, tea and juice.

With a wink and a smile, ol' Ben invites you to breakfast, and over a fine glass of claret, tells stories of his youth, his inventions (lightning rod, stove, bifocal glasses, book grabber, swim fins, first political cartoon), public institutions (the first: police force, volunteer fire department, fire insurance company, lending library, hospital, educational academy) and people of the revolution: cantankerous John Adams, bilious Arthur Lee, the bumbling British, the fascinating French, the double-dealing Dutch. From Philadelphia, London and Paris: stories of spies, secret codes, court intrigues, Congressional jealousies and America's most clever ambassador, B. Franklin, printer.

"Without question reading has been the foundation of whatever success I've had in my life." Hugh McColl Jr.
