Chicago actor RJ Lindsey brings to life Franklin D. Roosevelt in a one hour dramatic monologue that includes a wide range of topics: intolerance, trickle-down economics, tax cuts for the wealthy, jobs programs, building infrastructure: CCC, PWA, CWA, WPA, TVA, bank regulation, Glass-Steagall, Social Security. Also the Depression, WWII, Eleanor, Stalin, and Churchill.

Everybody Needs Friends

2017 Memberships

The Foundation's contributions to the library are made possible because of you, our members. Individual, Family and Book Lover memberships are due annually on January 1. Lifetime members never need to renew once becoming one. Join the Friends or renew your 2017 membership by completing the member application form available at the library or by visiting the Friends at www.huntleylibraryfriends.org. Individual Membership: $10, Family: $15, Book Lover: $50, and Lifetime: $100. Not sure if you renewed? Contact Pamela at the library, ext. 228.

UPDATES

Annual Plea

Many thanks to our 2016 Annual Plea supporters for helping the Friends raise just over $6,000. 100% of the funds will go towards new slim cases for the library's music collection.

Holiday Open House

During the event Friends sold: $500 in basket ticket sales, 3 Ornaments, and $212 at the book sale on Friday night. Total book sale proceeds for the weekend were $800.

Holiday Baskets

The Friends annual holiday basket fundraiser raised $2,600. A warm thank you to the basket committee, all volunteers, people who purchased tickets, anyone who made a donation, and of course the following business sponsors:

- Elated Boutique
- Connie Corwin
- Hardy Family
- Carol David
- Heartland Bank
- Kosta's Gyros
- Meijer
- Judy Schrader
- Morkes Chocolates
- Lou Malnati's
- Trader Joe's
